We want to begin by wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year. We at Gurjar are committed to and have strived to bring you quality Gujarati programs over the years and will continue to do so in 2009. This would not be possible without your ardent support and regular attendance at our events.

Thank you!

We understand that times are changing and so are choices but we hope that amidst all that you will continue to be part of all our events. We look forward to your feedback on types of programs you are interested in.

We are looking for the community members to join the committee so please contact us if interested. Together, let us make 2009 a fun filled year.
